

Kenn K. Franklin began serving as Superintendent of New Caney ISD in June 2009. Before arriving in New Caney, he served as Superintendent of Marshall ISD since 2005 and Marfa ISD prior to that. Mr. Franklin has a total of thirty years of experience in education, six years as a teacher and coach and over twenty years as an administrator. During those thirty years, he has served students in other districts as well including Tyler ISD, Athens ISD and Dallas ISD.

Mr. Franklin earned a Bachelor of Science Degree, Masters of Education Degree, and his Superintendent Certification from University of Texas at Tyler.

Kenn was born and raised in Tyler, Texas. He attended Baylor University and finished his degree at University of Texas at Tyler. Born into a family of educators, it was no surprise when Mr. Franklin began a career in education as a teacher and coach. It was during those years that he finished his Masters of Education Administration Degree.

He is married to Debbie and has four children – Kerbi, Hunter, Kennedy and Walker.

Mr. Franklin is involved in many civic and church activities. In his spare time, he enjoys coaching his children's sports teams and cooking (especially barbeque).
