

A native of Dallas, Dr. Glenn Slater has over 40 years of experience in Christian education, first serving as a history teacher and later Headmaster of Greenville Christian School in Greenville, Texas. After 21 years, Dr. Slater and his family faithfully followed God's calling to serve for 13 years as the Head Administrator of Maryville Christian School in Maryville, Tennessee. In 2015, Dr. Slater returned to Texas to assume his current position as Head Administrator here at Covenant.

Dr. Slater holds three degrees from Texas A&M University - Commerce: a bachelor's degree in history and political science, a masters degree in history, and a masters degree in Educational Administration. In addition, he holds a doctorate degree in history from the University of Tennessee.

During his career, Dr. Slater has also taught history at six separate universities. He holds a Lifetime Certification in teaching and in administration with the Association of Christian Schools International (ASCI).

Asked about his role at Covenant, Dr. Slater stated, "Being able to serve God at CCS at this point in my career is an immense blessing as I continue to grow in my walk with Christ. What a joy it is to serve our Lord and these great kids at Covenant!"
