

CONROE
INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICT

Kim Earthman serves as the Director of Student Support Services in the Conroe Independent School District. In her current role, she oversees Multi-Tiered Systems of Supports which includes Counseling, Positive Behavior Interventions & Supports, Social Emotional Learning and Response to Intervention. She began her career in Conroe ISD in 2001 as a teacher at Hauke Academic Alternative High School, Washington Jr. High and then Cryar Intermediate. Kim also served as a District Literacy Instructional Coach, RtI Specialist, and the Coordinator of Student Support Services.

Mrs. Earthman began her career in public education in 1996 as a special education teacher in Houston ISD followed by Spring ISD. She has earned a Master's Degree from Sam Houston State University in Reading, a Principal Certification from Lamar University, and bachelor's degree from Oklahoma State University.

Mrs. Earthman has been married for 20 years and has three children. Alexis and Lake are graduates of Conroe High School and Anabelle, a future Tiger, attends Cryar Intermediate.