

Judge Lisa Michalk is in her third term as the presiding Judge of the 221st District Court. She received a B.A. in political science from Texas A&M University and went to law school at Texas Tech School of Law where she received her J.D. Judge Michalk worked for the Jefferson County District Attorney's Office from 1992-1995. In 1995, Judge Michalk accepted a position as a prosecutor in Montgomery County and worked as a felony prosecutor until 2001. From 2003 to 2010, Judge Michalk was a partner at Benge & Shields, LLP. IN 2010, Judge Michalk was elected as judge of the 221st District Court. She has spoken at numerous Republican Women luncheons and events including Leadership Montgomery County, the Woodlands High School business law class, the Willis High School business law class, and the Woodlands Republican Women. Judge Michalk and her family are members of The Woodlands United Methodist Church. She currently resides in The Woodlands with her husband Dan of 26 years and is the mother of three boys. (Tyler, age 25 who is engaged to be married next March, Hunter, age 21 who is a senior at Baylor University, and Sam, age 17 who is a senior at The Woodlands High School)