

LEADERSHIP MONTGOMERY COUNTY PUBLIC SAFETY SESSION

CHIEF OF EMS JAMES CAMPBELL, FACPE

Biography

Chief Campbell joined MCHD in June of 2018 and began his role as the Chief of EMS in March of 2019. He began his EMS and Fire career in 2002 in Fayetteville, North Carolina. Upon returning to Texas in 2008, he joined the City of Celina Fire Department, where he served as the EMS Captain for four years. Chief Campbell is currently pursuing a Bachelor's Degree in Emergency Health Sciences from The University of Texas Health Science Center. Chief Campbell is committed to working closely with the MCHD Board of Directors, other first responder agencies and hospital partners to continue a successful and collaborative healthcare model in Montgomery County. Chief Campbell is a certified member of the American College of Paramedic Executives (FACPE), serves a member on the Governor's EMS & Trauma Advisory Council (GETAC) EMS Committee and is a Board of Director for the South East Texas Regional Advisory Council (SETRAC). His focus continues to be a people centered approach, working to ensure that MCHD's employees and patients are at the center of their decision making processes. Chief Campbell is proud to help lead MCHD, an organization committed to its' mission, vision, and core values.

