

Kelli Gershon , FNP-BC, ACHPN

Professional Bio

Kelli Gershon is currently clinical director covering Houston/Louisiana for Aspire Health Care, a subsidiary of Anthem. As clinical directors she is responsible for over 2300 patient lives and manages over 30 nurse practitioners who provide in home chronic disease management and palliative care. She has worked in the palliative care field for over 20 years across all healthcare settings. Her focus is on chronic disease management in the home setting focusing on cost containment while delivering compassionate and high-quality healthcare. She has resided in Houston area since 1997 and during her non-working hours she is a “soccer mom” and a “teacher’s wife.”