

Currently serves as Division Manager of San Jacinto River Authority's Lake Conroe Division.

He was born in Borger, TX, and raised in Aberdeen, MD, where he earned his BS in Natural Science from Towson University.

He has previously functioned as Operations Manager and Aquatic Plant Manager for the Lake Conroe Division.

He Spent 8 years with the US Army Ballistic Research Laboratory as a Physical Scientist, testing ignition systems for large-caliber tank weapons.

He worked for 10 years in the Texas Hill Country serving children and adults at Camp Balcones Springs Executive Retreat and Conference Center.

Bret, his wife Angela and daughter Marisa live on the SJRA Lake Conroe Campus.

The Raley's are members of Lake Church.