

Brandon Creighton

Raised on a working ranch, and the youngest of 4 children, Brandon was taught the values of hard work, personal responsibility and the importance of faith. Brandon put himself through college and law school. When elected to the Texas House, Creighton earned a reputation as a conservative leader, and led a nationwide movement for state's to reaffirm the 10th Amendment, cementing sovereignty under the Constitution. Creighton was selected by his colleagues to lead the Republican majority as Caucus Chair, and was deemed 'The man who kept Obamacare out of Texas'. Since being elected to the Texas Senate, Creighton maintains a conservative record, fighting for secure borders, balanced budgets and pro-Texas policies. In the Texas Senate, Creighton has continued his work as a key member of Senate Finance, delivering balanced budgets and funding sources for actual border solutions. As Chairman of the Senate Committee on Higher Education, Creighton has steered Texas Colleges and Universities to produce the most ready and skilled workforce in the nation, cementing Texas' strong business climate. Brandon also serves as Chairman of the Senate Select Committee on Ports, and is a member of numerous committees including Business and Commerce, Jurisprudence, Water and Natural Resources and the Select Committee on Constitutional Issues. Best known for his trademark, Let Texas Run Texas, Creighton was recently ranked the most conservative in the Texas Senate.
