

Luke Redus

Luke Redus is the founder and Executive Director of Compassion United. A Montgomery County-based nonprofit dedicated to empowering and equipping the poor and homeless to discover a new life that will restore their hope and transform their future. Luke previously worked in the Technology industry but has committed his life, full-time, since 2010 to the work of serving the forgotten and marginalized in our community. Having grown up in poverty himself, Luke can identify the struggles and the mindsets that affect those in need and is able to help them overcome it. He has been married to his wife, Karla for 25 years and they have raised three amazing sons.
