

Marc Brumberger is the Chief of the Juvenile Division of the Montgomery County Attorney's Office. He graduated from Tulane University in 1994 and the University of Houston Law Center in 1997. Marc then worked as an Assistant District Attorney for Montgomery County for 13 years prior to joining the County Attorney's Office in 2011. In both the juvenile and adult justice systems, Marc has prosecuted cases ranging from Class B misdemeanors to capital murders.