

Hon. Claudia Laird
Presiding Judge of County Court at Law Number Two Montgomery County, Texas

Judge Laird has presided over Montgomery County Court at Law #2 since 2011 and was the presiding Administrative Judge for the County Courts at Law for 2015, 2016 2020 and 2021. County Court at Law #2 was awarded Department of the year in 2016. Judge Laird was recognized in 2016 by the Texas Office of Court Administration in a statewide publication detailing “best practices” used by probate courts. In 2017 County Court at Law #2 was named by the Texas Office of Court Administration as a “model court” for guardianship administration practices, and Judge Laird was called to testify as a judicial expert on guardianship before the Texas Senate State Affairs Committee. In 2018 Judge Laird was appointed to serve on the Texas Judicial Council’s Civil Justice Advisory Committee. In 2020 her Court was designated by the Texas Judicial Council as a Judicial Center of Excellence; at the time only four courts in Texas had received this honor. During her first term in office Judge Laird created the Montgomery County Domestic Violence Court, and during her second term in office Judge Laird created the Montgomery County Veterans’ Court. Most recently Judge Laird (2021) was appointed by Texas Supreme Court Chief Justice Nathan Hecht to serve as one of two County Court at Law Judges on the Texas Judicial Counsel.

Judge Laird has worked with legislators to recommend, draft and testify in Austin regarding the following legislation:

Code of Criminal Procedure § 26.041
HB 634 (84th Legislative Session)
Texas Government Code § 501.010
SB 38 – Passed as amendment to SB 39 (85th Legislative Session)
