

Mayor Byron Sanford, City of Montgomery:

My wife and I moved to Montgomery in July 2020. I was elected to City Council in May of 2021, and have served as the Mayor of Montgomery since May 2022. We have been married for 42 years, and we have a wonderful daughter-in-law and two precious grandchildren living in Magnolia. I am a retired public school teacher, coach, and administrator of 31 years, a semi-retired Pastor for 15 years, and I teach bible and science at Alpha Omega Academy in Huntsville for my paying job. I did my bachelor's work at SFASU. and have an M.Ed. from the U. of H. Victoria, and a master's in Christian studies from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary. I also am serving on the Montgomery Economic Development Board for the second year, and have been a part of Judge Mack's Chaplain team for about the same time period.
