

Todd Stephens – Intergovernmental Relations Director & Assistant to the President, The Woodlands Township

Todd currently works to build and strengthen the Township's relationships with key local, state and federal officials, as well as, advocating for the Township's state and federal legislative and regulatory priorities. Todd has over two decades of legislative and government experience including 13 years working for Congressman Kevin Brady in Washington, D.C. and in Texas. Prior to serving Congressman Brady, Todd served in various capacities in the Kentucky General Assembly including as professional committee staff, bill drafter, and as a legislative assistant with the Senate President. Todd holds a M.A. in Political Science and B.A.s in Political Science and Philosophy.