

Evan Roberson began serving as the third Executive Director for Tri-County Behavioral Healthcare on February 1, 2013.

In his 29-year Community Center career, Evan has held a variety of positions at three different community centers, including roles in mental health crisis services, psychiatric research, grant writing, development of housing for persons with disabilities, and supervision of administrative services including quality management and information technology. He holds a Master's Degree in Public Administration from Sam Houston State University.

Evan currently serves as the Chair of the Texas Community Center Executive Director's Consortium, on the Contracts and Fiscal Imperatives Committee, and as Executive Director liaison to both Crisis Services and Substance Use Disorder Services Special Interest Groups. He also serves on many other state-level committees, workgroups and teams.

On Sundays, Evan proudly serves in West Conroe Baptist Church's Discovery Ministry, a ministry to persons with special needs.
