

TRENT FULIN, MBA

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER
HOUSTON METHODIST CYPRESS HOSPITAL

Trent Fulin, an executive leader with more than 12 years of experience in the health care profession, serves as Senior Vice President and Chief Executive Officer of Houston Methodist Cypress Hospital.

Prior to this role, Fulin was part of the leadership team that helped develop and open Houston Methodist The Woodlands Hospital in June 2017. The acute care facility is strategically located to meet the growing health care needs of the Montgomery County community and designed to deliver the unparalleled Houston Methodist experience to those seeking comprehensive care in a world-class setting close to home.

As Vice President and Chief Operating Officer at Houston Methodist The Woodlands Hospital, his responsibilities included overseeing hospital operations and managing departmental leadership to ensure patient satisfaction and high-quality care. Additionally, Fulin had executive oversight of numerous service lines including heart and vascular, endoscopy, orthopedics & sports medicine, neurosciences and cancer services.

Fulin drove operations for the hospital's $250 million master-planned campus expansion with an on-time opening in January 2022. The new care tower is a patient-centric project which incorporates innovative technology and a hospital-of-the-future design.

Fulin's vision to implement evidence-based programs with outcome-driven results led Houston Methodist The Woodlands to achieve Comprehensive Stroke Certification and DNV Orthopedic Center of Excellence designation within two years of the hospital opening. Under Fulin's leadership, the hospital continued to receive nationwide health care accolades based on quality and patient safety, including the American Association of Cardiovascular and Pulmonary Rehabilitation (AACVPR) Program Certification.

In addition, Fulin is actively involved in the community, having served on the board of The Woodlands Area Economic Development Partnership, Executive Leadership Committee of the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society – Montgomery County. He is an active participant in many local, not-for-profit organizations and was a 2019 graduate of Leadership Montgomery County.

Prior to joining Houston Methodist The Woodlands Hospital, Fulin served as Associate Chief Operating Officer for Clear Lake Regional Medical Center, owned by HCA, Inc. Fulin has extensive leadership experience with HCA, Inc., including previous leadership positions at Pearland Medical Center, Bayshore Medical Center and East Houston Regional Medical Center.

After completing a Bachelor of Science degree in Health Policy and Administration from Pennsylvania State University, Fulin subsequently earned a Master of Business Administration from Texas Tech University. He is a member of the American College of Healthcare Executives.

Fulin resides in Houston, Texas with his wife and two children.

HOUSTON
Methodist®
CYPRESS HOSPITAL

