

Ann Wolford is the Founder and Principal Consultant of The Wolford Group, a nonprofit management consulting firm where she brings over 25 years of experience in the for-profit and nonprofit sector. With a heart for mission-driven work, she works with clients to help them maximize their operating efficiency and fundraising potential. The Wolford Group provides services ranging from strategic planning and board development to feasibility studies and strategic communications and fundraising plans. Over the past year, Wolford Group has worked with many clients to re-imagine events to achieve fundraising success. Wolford Group works with startup nonprofits to multi-million-dollar organizations.